DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 6,141,306 to Andoh (hereafter "Andoh").

Andoh discloses arrangements for testing an optical drive CD "data recording/reproducing device" including counting ATIP errors or counting C1 errors of the CIRC ECC and displaying the result on a monitor of a computer. Andoh's optical drive includes "recording/reproducing means for recording and/or reproducing the data" and "deterioration information detecting means" (21 for C1 errors, 22 for ATIP errors) for "detecting deterioration of the disc-shaped recording medium." Andoh's monitor (not shown) serves as a "display means for displaying deterioration information of the disc-shaped recording medium" and Andoh's monitor controller (not shown) serves as a "control means for performing a control to generate deterioration information indicating deterioration in accordance with the detected deterioration to conduct a display on the display means in accordance with the deterioration information."

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 11-15 are allowed.
4. Claims 2-5 and 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
